September 29, 1841.

PROPOSALS, sealed and endorsed, will be received at this office until 3 o'clock, P. M. of Monday, the 1st November next, for furnishing and delivering at the Navy Yard at Portsmouth, New Hampshire, and at the Navy Station, at the Navy Yard at Philadelphia, Washington, D. C., Gosport, Va., and the Baltimore Naval Station, respectively, such quantities of the following articles, of the best quality, that may be ordered or required from the contractors by the respective Commanders or Commanding Officers at the respective Navy Yards and Navy Stations, or by the Navy Agents, respectively, during the year 1842, for the use of the Navy of the United States, viz:

- No. 1. Bolt and Sheet Copper (hot rolled)
- No. 2. Round, flat, and square Iron
- No. 3. Superior Flour
- No. 4. Ship Biscuit (made from superfine flour of the manufacture of the years 1841 or 1842)
- No. 5. Whiskey
- No. 6. Butter
- No. 7. Spermin Candles
- No. 8. Spermin Oil
- No. 9. Lined Oil (in its raw state)
- No. 10. Paints (the several articles named in the printed schedule)
- No. 11. Molasses, Vinegar, Rice, and White Beans.

It is distinctly understood, however, that persons who may offer are not to have any claim or privilege to furnish any greater quantity of any article than may be expressly ordered.

It is also to be understood that, when persons reside at places other than those in which they engage to furnish articles, they will be required to appoint and duly authorize some person, resident at or near the place of delivery, to receive and act upon the requisitions or orders which may be made.

And it is also to be understood, that in case the person, or his agent, shall neglect or fail to comply with the requisitions or orders he may receive for articles under his contract, in proper time and of proper quality, the officers or agents of the Navy shall be authorized to purchase the same, and the contractor shall be liable for any excess of cost over the contract price.

Separate proposals must be made for each class of articles for each Navy Yard and for the Baltimore Naval Station. The blank forms furnished to individuals must have all the blanks carefully filled up, and must be subscribed as directed in the note on the face of the form, and the offers must be unqualified and unconditional.

Bonds, with two approved sureties, in one-third the estimated amounts of the respective contracts, will be required, and 10 per centum in addition will be withheld from the amount of each payment to be made, as collateral security for the due and faithful performance of the respective contracts, which will, on no account, be paid until the contracts are complied with in all respects, unless specially authorized by the Board of Navy Commissioners. After deducting ten per centum, payment will be made by the United States within thirty days after the said articles shall have been inspected and received, and the same presented to the Navy Agent, approved by the Commanders or Commanding Officers of the respective Navy Yards and Naval Station aforesaid, according to the terms of the contracts.

The Board of Navy Commissioners reserve to themselves the right to reject any offers from persons who have not complied with the terms of the contracts, and to award the business to such persons as they may deem proper.

Blank forms of offers for each denomination of articles will be furnished by the respective Navy Agents or Commanding Officers, to persons applying for them, and upon which all offers should be made strictly conforming to the directions of the printed schedule. The blank forms will be lodged with the Commanding Officers of the respective Navy Yards and Naval Station.

To be published in the National Intelligencer, Madisonian, Army & Navy Chronicle, Alexandria Gazette, and Globe, in the District of Columbia; Portsmouth Journal, New Hampshire Chronicle, Watchman and State Journal, of the Empire Press, in New York; Boston Daily Advertiser, Boston Atlas, Boston Courier, and Essex Register, in Massachusetts; New York Express, and New York Commercial Advertiser, in the State of New York; North American and Daily Advertiser, in Pennsylvania; Baltimore Patriot, and Baltimore American, in Maryland; Norfolk and Portsmouth Herald, in Virginia; and Frederickburg News, in the State of Virginia.

POTOMAC BRIDGE.—The subscriber will receive proposals until the 25th of October next, for the supply of 446,700 feet of pine timber, the growth of Virginia or Maryland, 120,000 feet to be delivered by the fall. The quantity of the timber will vary from 14 to 12 by 12, and of various lengths, particular bills of which will be furnished the contractor; it must be of the best quality, hewn or sawed square, and delivered at the bridge, or at such places in its vicinity as the Engineer may direct, and be subject to his inspection.

Twenty per cent. will be retained of the value of such portion of the timber as shall have been delivered, which per centage shall be paid on the fulfillment of the contract, or forfeited on a failure of the contractors.

Persons offering for the above will address the undersigned, and enclose their bids "Proposals for Pine Timber," and enclose them to Colonel J. J. Abert, Topographical Engineer, Washington.

Persons desiring to bid for the above Timber will be furnished with a particular bill of lengths &c. upon application to the subscriber in person or by letter (post paid) at Georgetown, D. C.

FORGET ME NOT.

BY WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON.

The following little poem, written by the late President in his earlier days, has a singular force at the present juncture.

The star that shines so pure and bright,
Like a far-off place of bliss,
And tells the broken hearted
There are brighter worlds than this;
The moon that courses through the sky,

Now shining bright with borrowed light,

Or when eclipsed, a dreary blank,
A fearful emblem given
Of a heart shut out by a sinful world
From the blessed light of Heaven;
The flower that freely casts its wealth
Of perfume on the gale,
The breeze that mourns the summer's close
With melancholy wail;
The stream that cleaves the mountain's side
Or gurgles from the grove—
All speak in their Creator's name,
And say, "Forget me not!"
